The [illegible] campus cannot be [illegible] by a few [illegible] ent majority and [illegible] by a coa[illegible] The 2,800 students at Sam[illegible] University [illegible] spend [illegible] study, wait in cafe[illegible] [illegible] extracurricular activities, [illegible] attend football games, cut no more [illegible] pay the ris[illegible] in general, se[illegible] pace that ma[illegible] University what and [illegible] it is [illegible] Because the [illegible] students this school w[illegible] and [illegible] cause [illegible] what no o[illegible] can do, [illegible] 1970 [illegible] Yo[illegible] is the [illegible] to the Sa[illegible] rd [illegible] nts.

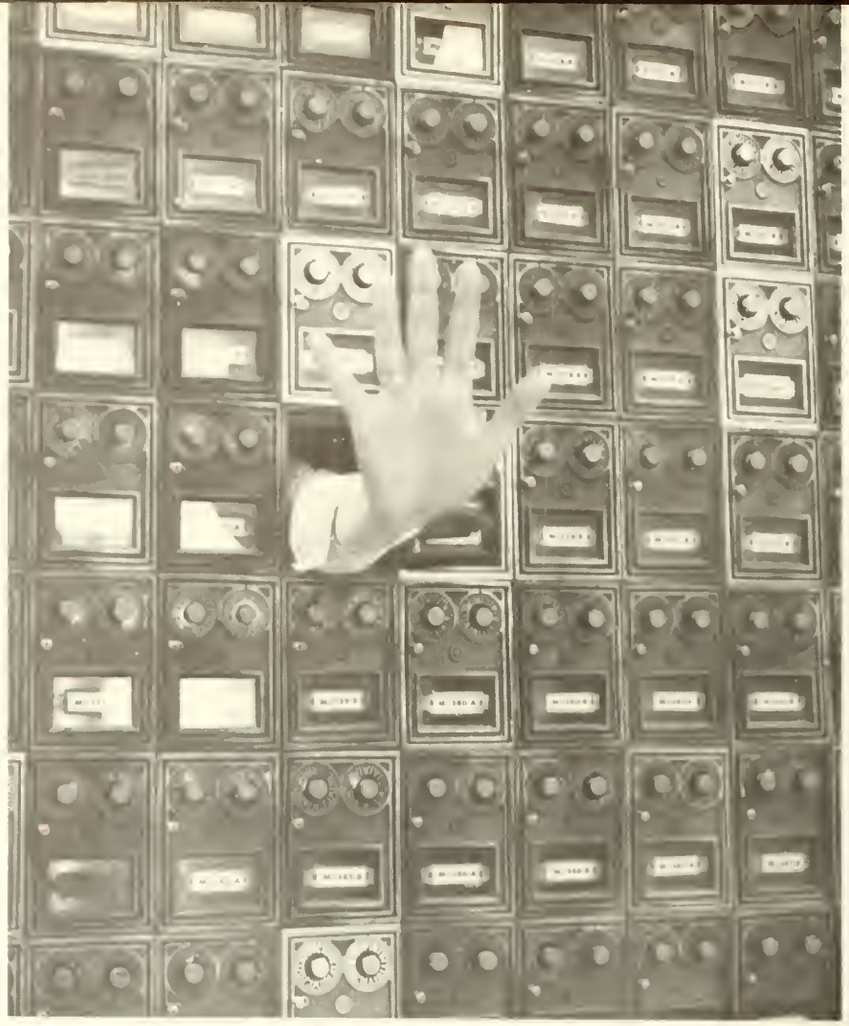
Yesterday we probably never worried about today . . . Yet . . . today we can laugh at our games, climb our mountain . . . enjoy . . . do what we will . . . but keep it moving.

Samford

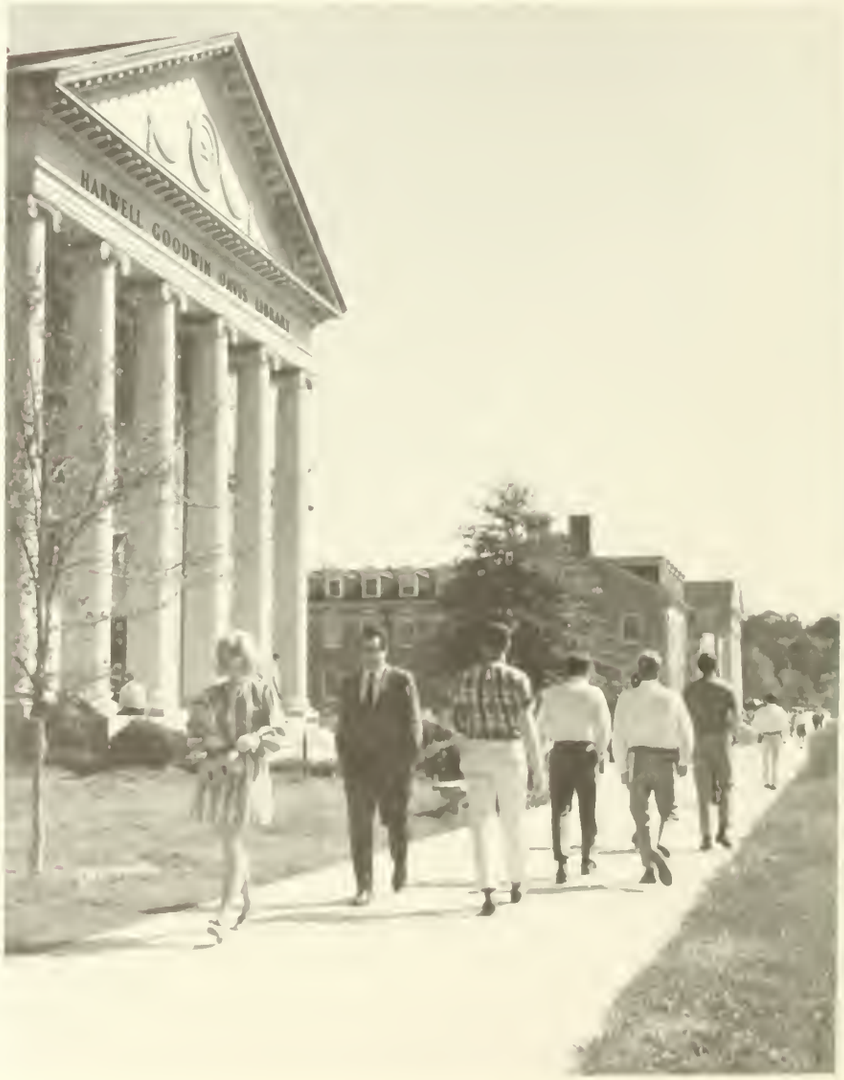
Madly we rush to get what we want . . . Often we pause to ponder those sounds of silence . . . alone . . . We compete with four years of fleeting time . . . And snatch quiet moments for instant replays of the games we play.

"For all that has been – Thanks!
For all that shall be – Yes!"

"What is it which makes a man and woman know that they, of all other men and women in the world belong to each other . . . Is there . . . one among all others who have lived . . . whom we must love in turn . . . whom we must seek all our lives long . . . headlong and homesick . . . until the end?"



"We should endeavor to do something so that we may say that we have not lived in vain, that we may leave some impression of ourselves on the sands of time."



We have only now to learn what we must here . . . If we don't hurry we will leave without it.

. . . Rush is the life-blood of the Greek system, a time of working together under a common bond . . .

You never get too young for rush

What sorority life means to me?

SAMFORD STUDENTS

Among us, Samford University is very important; but, incredible as it may seem, it is not a self-subsisting unit. The commercial world of dime stores, doctors, dairies, restaurants, shoe stores, apothecaries, banks, bowling alleys, jewelers, and manufacturers can not be forgotten.

These our advertisers provide the necessities and luxuries of life. Simultaneously through advertising, they aid in the production of this student publication.

a city where good neighbors can proudly live, work, and prosper

In addition, the men and women of ACIPCO have shared in the development of the civic and cultural life of Birmingham. Through its people—and its products—the American Cast Iron Pipe Company evidences its support of the elements which make a good community . . . the elements which build a city where good neighbors can proudly live, work, and prosper.

For more than half a centrury, the American Cast Iron Pipe Company has had an active part in Alabama's industrial expansion. Its products, of both cast iron and steel, have helped in the economic growth of the South.

In Memoriam

He Who Lives in the Heart of Others
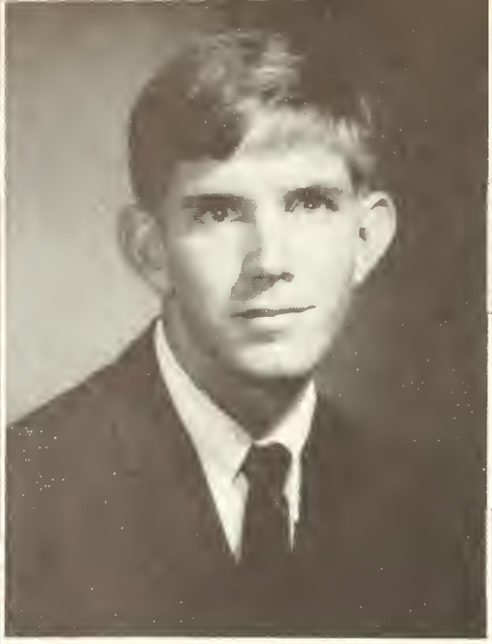
Cannot Die

In Memoriam

Mr. Aubrey H. White

" . . . to be honest, to be fearless, to be just, joyous, kind. This will make our part in life's great, and as yet not fully understood, play one of greatest glory, and we need then stand in fear of nothing—life nor death; for death is life. Or rather, it is the quick transition to life in another form; the putting off of the old coat and the putting on of the new; a passing not from light to darkness, but from light to light according as we have lived here; a taking up of life in another form where we leave it off here; a part in life not to be shunned or dreaded or feared, but to be welcomed with a glad and ready smile when it comes in its own good way and time . . . "



SEPTEMBER 7, 1947-
AUGUST, 1969

" . . . He was the finest all-round athlete I have ever coached. He had the best attitude and was such a great hustler he would have been worth a full scholarship sitting on the bench."

" . . . Karl was a leader and highly respected by students and faculty alike. He will be greatly missed."

In these, the words of his coach and of Samford's President, Karl Neilson is best described. To all of us who knew him, his memory is precious. His life was such that anyone who came in contact with him was his friend.
